General Comments:

This Strip buffet is quite overpriced for moderately good food. Meal started out beautifully with salad bar and cold shrimp; fun things on the salad bar like hearts of palms, mozzarella balls with cherry tomatoes and grilled baby carrots...yum! But the hot food was a different story. The lamb in tomato sauce from the Middle Eastern Station tasted very much like the beef in tomato sauce from the Mexican Station. The tilapia from the Asian Station was too dried out to eat. There was a wide variety of desserts that were delicious, especially the cupcakes. But the problem is that other buffets charging similar prices have much better food. I would only recommend this business if you get a 50% Off Groupon deal or something similar like we did.

- I would recommend this business
- I would not recommend this business

I rate it (choose a number on 1-5 scale) 3 - Good
