General Comments:

This was a new experience in eating. Kaba Curry is a fusion of Japanese Curry with toppings you may not think of when envisioning curry. You can have it as hot or mild as you like it. It's a very laid-back, youthful atmosphere where you feel welcomed and at ease. It's not unusual to see people playing board games while there. A really different and fun experience. It is located on the second floor of the building but there is an elevator that you can use near the parking garage or a second floor entrance from the parking garage for ease of use.

- I would recommend this business
